“ I recently found Avis Davis' album No. 1 and it is incredible. What a fantastic artist! I've been turning my friends onto it too and just wanted to share that his art is still inspiring people. My condolences to his friends and family.

“ Avis and I were childhood friends. At the time his name was Roy. He had a guitar which he never played and let me borrow it. I taught myself and then taught Avis how to play. From there we found a great drummer, Greg Gibson, and formed the band The Nomads. We were always looking for a bass player and finally found Joe Walsh (yes THAT Joe Walsh) to be our bass player. We were very popular and played a lot of gigs. Avis was not only a great musician but a great person and wonderful friend. He also was very smart. We had so much fun together. I have a feeling we will be back on Heaven's stage playing side by side again in front of the angels. I will miss you my beautiful friend. Till we meet again.

*Your Nomad buddy,

I was just thinking about Avis and I was wondering if anyone knows how to get in touch with his sister. Her name escapes me. Does anyone know how she can be reached.

*Thanks

I believe his sister Margaret Karg may be living on Concord Rd. In Weston, MA. When I first met him in NYC in the 70's he was going by the name Ariel - before he changed it to Avis. Somewhere in the attic I have a picture of him in my apt on East 57th St in 1975.

Loved his second album , which had great attitude. Always wondered why he didn't make it in the music biz . He had great charisma and talent.

Fare well dude .....

I met Avis and Katrine when he was about 50 and living at that fabulous church in Hudson. He was showing up at a local jam night and looking for a bass player and drummer to gig with. We hit it off (I'm a drummer) and ended up playing quite a bit in Rhode Island, The Raccoon Lodge in Manhattan and in '99 we played the yearly concert at Yasgar's Farm with Joy Ryder-I will miss him

I can't think of a nicer couple than Avis and Katrine.

Both artists in their own right. The three of us would hang out and anytime we entered a place peeps would stop and stare. We were fashion statements.

No designer labels but outfits we threw together. Katrine made me and Avis shirts from a bag of shammy shins I had. The acoustics, jamming in the church.

Avis took up residence on my road when he moved upstate before acquiring the church.

Wonderful memories. RIP

Your old buddy
