“ You were a great guy. You meant The whole world to me. We even had plans on getting married. I will never ever forget you. I will never ever forget all of our camping trips and fishing trips over this past summer. Your death is unexpected and I am truly devastated by what has happened. You will always have my heart just like I will always have yours. I love you always now and forever

“ What can I say. We were siblings and certainly had our differences but that's what a brother and sister do. I know even though things were tough between us that you would of been there for me in a heartbeat. Just like you would everyone else. I also know that no matter what went on with us you loved. Even during the times you hated me. We have so many memories that it's impossible to share just one. It still feels surreal to me. My whole life I've had two brothers and now ones gone. I truly hope that every family learns something for this terrible tragedy. Families fight but you only have one and it's important that no matter what may come between you at the end of the day say you love them and forgive them for whatever happened because they may not be here tomorrow. This Just doesn't feel right. I know how difficult your life has been and my only hope is that your at peace now. Love and miss you my big big brother more than you will ever know.

“ Boomer!! I wish there was a way to stop your passing! You have so many family members asking why? You were a gentle giant willing to take the shirt off your back to help anyone in need. Your kids never got the chance to know what a wonderful person you were. I know you have been battling a lot of demons, but you should have called! I love and miss you and I hope that you have peace in whatever it was you were dealing with. Rest in Peace...Todd

I forgot his little (big) brother Bill! I am sorry for your loss. As you know I was probably one of the closest family/ friends he had and I wish I could have done more! He had an unfair life some by choice some not! He dealt with everything the best he knew how! My family is deeply saddened at his passing. To his kids mom's just know to judge someone you have to walk in his shoes! He deserved to see his daughters whether supervised or not! Kristianna I am sorry you didn't get to know him!
