

Charlotte Ann Waggoner

March 15, 1942 - June 1, 2026

Charlotte Ann Waggoner, 84, of Bluffton, SC, beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully in her sleep in the Addison Memory Care Facility on June 1, 2026. Born on March 15, 1942, in Allentown, PA to Helen I. (Lentz) and Charles W. Rissell. After graduating from Wm. Allen High School, where she played in the band, she immediately joined the workforce. She worked for Lehigh Lumber and Arbogast and Bastian. While working at A&B she married Don in the Egner Memorial Chapel at Muhlenberg College.

She followed his employment with Lehigh Portland Cement to Whitestone, NY, Cedar Rapids, IA, Decatur, IL and then back to Allentown. She then became a Teacher's Aide at Union Terrace Elementary School. She then joined The Aspen Group and eventually went to work for Spirax Sarco. She and Don followed that job to Blythewood, South Carolina where Charlotte retired as Assistant to the President after working a total of 25 years for Spirax. In her free time Charlotte enjoyed sunbathing at the community pool and tending to her potted plants and of course she always loved her poodles. She would have loved to have been a breeder. While in Allentown she attended Redeemer Lutheran and St. Timothy Evangelical Lutheran Church. After moving to Bluffton, SC she attended Lord of Life Lutheran Church. She is survived by her loving husband of 62 years, Donald E. Waggoner; a daughter, Kim E. Maurer and her husband Gary S.; a grandson, Dustin T. Maurer and his wife Alisha N.; a great-grandson Tatum E.; and a brother

Jeff Rissell. A private ceremony will be held at a later date.
