

Dana Mitchell Bleau

November 14, 1956 - July 6, 2013

Dana Mitchell Bleau peacefully slipped into eternal rest Saturday July 6, 2013, surrounded by his friends and family. Born in Pittsfield, Massachusetts on November 14, 1956 he was the son of the late Zenophil and Ethel (Harris) Bleau. Dana was an avid Beatles fan and adored his Husky, King. Dana was pre-deceased by his parents Zenophil and Ethel Bleau, two brothers Phillip and Gilbert Bleau, and his cherished dogs Lennon and Sir Bleau. He was an amazing father, friend to all who knew him, and was "family" to those closest to him calling them sisters, brothers, nieces, and nephews. Survivors include his daughter, Krista Dallas, sons Justin and Derrick (Angela) Boulais, beloved dog, King, estranged wife Tina Bleau, and five grandchildren. Calling hours and services officiated by Rev. Ken Coddington will be Tuesday July 9, 2013 from (4-8) pm at the Sacco-McDonald-Valenti Funeral Home 700 Town Hall Drive Hudson.
