I never want to remember her passing I only want to remember her expressing she showed love bravery and kindness. I watched as she helped me grow and become her leader. I never got to say I loved you of her last bit of energy before she died, But I know she loves me and her sons and now she’s peacefully in heaven amen my god.

“ I have memories of Diane being such a hard worker. Her home was very neat. She followed the excellent example of her hard working parents. Diane also was the kindest and most caring person. I am certain that she was the best mother to her two sons. What a wonderful person. May God comfort you all.
