

Earl E. Dingman

December 13, 1926 - November 8, 2021

Earl E. Dingman, 94, of Mellenville, NY, died peacefully at Albany Medical Center of November 8, 2021, with his two daughters by his side. He was pre-deceased by his wife of 64 years, Catherine (“Kitty”) Pozza Dingman. Earl, known as “Ding” to friends and family, was born on December 13, 1926, to the late Earl Dingman and Beulah Laraway Dingman. He served in the U.S. Army during WWII and worked as a laborer before finding a fulfilling career in construction with Kilby Bros. of Albany. Nicknamed “the Professor” by some of his co-workers, Earl was a self-taught and accomplished surveyor and blaster. As a foreman, he was responsible for the site work during the building of SPAC and Colonie Center.

Earl became an avid golfer after retiring from Kilby Bros., and for many years he and Kitty could be found daily at Undermountain Golf Club. He enjoyed reading, woodworking, bowling and billiards, and playing pinochle and dominoes. He was a loyal Yankees fan. After Kitty’s death in 2010, he continued to attend “family Sunday” at the homes of his daughters, with grandchildren and great-grandchildren in attendance. These Sundays were so special, and will be remembered fondly by all.

Earl was pre-deceased by his sisters, Shirley, Beulah, Jan and Doris and by his dear companion of later years, Patricia Moseley. He is survived by his brother, Donald; his son David (Barbara) Dingman; daughter Lynn (Larry) Lohman; daughter Joyce Zurenko; grandchildren Diane, Laurie, Lauren, Cheryl, David, Meghan and Carrie; and 10 great-grandchildren. He was an important part of all their lives and delighted in keeping up with their activities.

He will be dearly missed.
