“ So sorry to hear of Aunt Edna's passing. She and Aunt Rose were most treasured by my dad, and he deeply cherished their friendship. Thirty-five years have passed since I last saw or spoke to Aunt Edna, but she was never forgotten. I remember her friendly personality and positive attitude. I even remember her laugh and sense of humor. She was the last surviving child born to my grandparents, Ezra and Myrtle Stickles, and she and her siblings (Dot, Jonnie, Lillian, Rose, Ethel, Ida, Al, and Bill) that preceded her to the other side will be forever missed. Can you imagine the celebration her brothers and sisters have planned for her final journey home? God bless you, Aunt Edna. Rest in peace.
