“ I will miss her quirky sense of humor. Sometimes I didnt know if she was serious or joking! She sure had me fooled a few times. I think that's where her son Patrick gets it from. In my short 5 years of being around the family we grew to care for each other. We had a common love of crocheting and teddy bears. We would talk about patterns, colors etc. I thank you for passing on the yarn when you were cleaning the closet. Thank you for your gift to me of your son. May God keep you in your eternal graces mom. Love your future daughterinlaw.

“ *She was such a funny gal always silly. She loved to socialize until her RA crippled her and immobilized her.
I pray her legs are strong and she is square dancing all over the clouds above.*
