“ What I remember most importantly of ma was the unconditional love she had for her family, especially her grandchildren. Her nurturing them was where she felt whole and at peace with herself. But on another note, I always knew her to be a theral woman. Wasn't taking shit from no man or woman. God has blessed you Ms. Ethel and now we gotta keep praying to be as blessed as you were throughout your time here and after ♡♡

“ Ms Ethel, Ma, Grandma...no matter how you knew her, she was family. I remember the first time I met her, Manny and I had been out for the evening and when it came time for me to drive "drunk" out to Copake Lake or stay in town overnight with him, well I'm sorry, that was a no brainer lol. BUT I wasn't as brave as most back then, I was ,hush Manny, quite shy. Of course I stayed. The next morning, I could smell the eggs, bacon and coffee so in my "dress up Sat night clothes" I wandered out to the kitchen and met 2 of the family, Ma who I addressed as Mrs. Fernandez and Papa Joe who was Manny's brother. I was Flava of the night to Papa Joe but to Ma I was the newest family member and she proceeded to shake my hand, put a plate in from of me and say, "I'm Ma". That was about 1976 or 77 and she was still Ma the other morning when she took her last breath. Go with the Lord Ma...you were loved by many.

“ Sitting here and you are so much on my mind.....Grandma I loved you more than you would ever know and I will miss you til we meet again. One of my greatest regrets is not spending a lot more time with you. I'm thinking about when the last time i was there with you and was so amazed at that great memory of yours...so many grandchildren and knew everybody's name and I will miss the wise talks with you...I'm hurting so bad but I hope that even though i didn't get to spend a great deal of time with you i pray that you know that i loved you...rest up my Queen
