“ Frank and Anna were my godparents. I have fond memories of going to see them every Christmas as a child. They were always kind and supportive of me. May they both now rest in peace.

“ We all are sad to know about aunt Francis departure. Despite we hadn't the opportunity to meet him in person, several stories and fond memories were shared with us. We feel very close to all of you and will pray for his soul.

Proud of my Uncle Frank. He and my Aunt Anna played an important part in my life from my very earliest days. They were loving and kind to me. Especially remember my Uncle Frank's tours of Hudson and surrounding area each time I visited in the later years. RIP, Uncle Frank.
