“ Frank was our UPS driver for many years. Frank always went out of his way to accommodate us. The jingling of his keys as he's coming up the stairs and his smile will truly be missed. I will miss being able to yell out the window to you Frank. May you rest in peace. In this time of sorrow May we all remember the laughter and memories we shares with Frank. Our sincerest Sympathy to the Roberts Family and Friend.

“ We've just heard the news today about Frank and are deeply saddened. Our sincere sympathy to all his family and friends. Frank was our company's UPS driver and was always cheerful when he came to Snazzy Beads for a pick up or delivery. We could always beg him to wait "one more minute" while we finished getting packages ready to give him. He would just laugh and say "Alright! Two more minutes!"

To Mrs. Roberts, we are sorry your son was called too soon, but please take comfort in knowing that he touched many lives and was well loved.

Respectfully,
Anna and Artie Shaw

“ Frank was always kind when he delivered our heavy cases of chocolate and candies at The Chocolate Moose on Main Street in Chatham, and always smiling when he delivered gifts, packages, and wine orders to our home around the block. The Christmas he “trained” his brother on his route was full of laughs. Many times I tracked him down during his second pass thru town to hand him a delivery, which he never refused.

Those shorts (and shoes) will be impossible to fill. I think March 15th should be made “Wear Shorts Day” in Chatham NY. Rest In Peace Frank. Condolences to his family.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Frank for over 20 years. I worked with him when he was a part-time loader in the early years and I have to say they were my favorite memories. We had fun at work and we were family. Although he was a quiet guy he was also very funny. Even when he became a driver we would now and then have our own private joke that only we understood. I'm going to miss you Frank and I hope you knew that you could always make me smile and I hope I did the same for you. My sincere condolences to the family. It will be a bumpy road for a bit but just know that Frank was well liked by many people and I'm sure he won't be forgotten. God bless you and your family.
