“ Frank and me worked together on a lot of jobs. He was one of the nicest guys I ever met. I'll never forget him. A great Union brother and a damn good carpenter. We last worked together on the Athens power plant. I'll never forget him. Peace Frankie. Tom McGuigan Local 265.

“ My wife Donna and I met Frank just this year through mutual friends. He was our guide to Rolling Thunder. Although we were new to the motorcycle group we were very much welcomed and instantly felt like we belonged there. I'm sorry we hadn't met years before. As you struggle through this difficult time may all of your best memories flood back to you and help restore your hearts. "Best" memories are all we have of Frank. For that, we are grateful. God bless you all.

“ Frank Sabo, a truly talented man. I recal growing up next door I had colored in a "Beatles, Yellow Submarine" coloring book page beside my drawing was a note to Frank asking him to be my dad too. He he, Although I didn't quite get a yes that day he treated me no differently then one of his own until the day I moved. Protective and loyal he loved his family and it was evident the love was returned <3

“ Too many memories to share and all good! Fred & I have been so blessed to have called Frank our friend and to have spent time with almost all of his family members. He is missed greatly, profoundly, as he was his own person, hardworking, caring, honest and true. One of my favorite things about Frank, is that many a time, if you asked him a question....he would answer with a good question....THAT WOULD MAKE YOU THINK :) One of a kind and irreplaceable....with all our love Frank....xxoo Fred & Kim

“ Frankie you were always kind and good to me. I especially remember when you came to fix my door down back. We sure had a lot of laughs that day. I can remember wanting to help you and you kept telling me you didn't need really need my help . That was many years ago and since then I am not a carpenter by no means but I have learned to do simple repairs on my own. My husband met you and he liked you immediately. He said what a fine young man and of course you and him talked a lot about unions. Your pain and suffering is gone now and you will forever RIP and for that I am thankful, you have many family and friends that are going to miss you but your memories will forever live on. RIP Frankie, God has a new angel in heaven now. Love you and will miss you my friend. Martha and Terry LaBarge
