

Gavin T. Kane

February 6, 1992 - February 16, 2022

Gavin T. Kane, 30, of Greenport, died Wednesday February 16, 2022 at Columbia Memorial Hospital. Born February 6, 1992 in Burlington, New Jersey, he is the son of Kelly (Eric) Anderson of Port St. Lucie FL and Bruce (Janine) Grupposo of Cranston, RI.

Gavin was a graduate of Ichabod Crane High School and was recently employed with Columbia Memorial Hospital. He attended Columbia-Greene Community College and was known for his artwork, which is displayed proudly on campus. In addition to his parents, he will be greatly missed by his sister McKenzie Rybka of Syracuse, NY and brother Dean Grupposo, of Cranston, RI. Maternal grandparents Gerard and Barbara Kane of Greenport, and paternal grandfather Stephen Grupposo of Marlboro, MA. He is also survived by aunt Colleen (Michael) Wolff, uncles Matthew (Marisa) Kane, Scott (Barbara) Anderson, cousins Maxwell and Molly Kane. Gavin is also survived by Crystal Coons, his lifetime best friend. He is predeceased by grandmother, Ruth Grupposo.

We are grateful for the love and support of the many friends and family who have reached out to share how special, how kind and how loving Gavin was to all who knew him. He was always a friend to everyone he met. A special thank you to his Garden Apartment family and staff who have gone above and beyond to be there for Gavin during difficult times. The family is grateful for you, and we thank you for the love shown.

“ I only just became aware of Gavin's passing. We attended school together, but were in different social circles then. I wasn't aware of the difficulties he had been facing. As a trans-identifying person that just turned 30 in March, Gavin's passing is haunting and tragic to me. It and he are not things I will forget. I'm so sorry for your loss.
