

Harold A. Robertson

February 6, 1935 - May 1, 2020

Harold A. Robertson

Harold A. Robertson, 85, of Philmont died peacefully at Pine Haven Nursing Home, Friday, May 1, 2020. Harold was born February 6, 1935 to George and Ruth (Snow) Robertson in North Hampton, Massachusetts. In 1946, Harold's family moved here to Columbia County.

Harold was predeceased by his wife of 63 years, Patricia D (Fischer) Robertson. He is survived by son's Timothy (Laurie) and Paul (Christina) as well as grandchildren Joshua, Megan and Savannah; greatgrandchildren and several nieces and nephews. He is also survived by a number of his siblings. Harold worked in the concrete and construction field. He worked for a number of years for 20th Century Concrete Works which was owned by his father. After the family business was sold, Harold continued working in the construction trades including the years leading up to his retirement when he worked part-time for his son Paul in his electrical business. Harold did not fully retire until he was in his early 70s.

Harold was a member of the Hudson Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses since 1952. A virtual memorial service will be held Zoom on Saturday; May 9, 2020 officiated by Jonathan Smith from the Hudson Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. Friends and relatives are invited to attend. Please contact Timothy Robertson at trobertson12565@gmail.com for further details. Arrangements are with the Sacco Funeral Home, 700 Town Hall Drive, Hudson. To leave online condolences visit www.saccofuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

MB

“ I had the pleasure of visiting Harold at Camphill Ghent and later at Whiney. He loved to play Rummikub and dominoes. We'd play and chat. He told me stories about his life. The walls of his room at Camphill were covered with his artwork, intricate and colorful geometric designs. In all ways a gentle-man.

Margaret Brooks - May 17, 2020 at 03:42 PM