“ My dearest family . I will always remember my Aunt RLEE THAT what I called her and never knew any different . I just wanted u to know as I told Debroah the last time I talk to her she said she didn't know why we as family we had never stayed in contact with all our family members. And she was so right
I had truly wanted to come to her funeral . But as u know it snowed and I live in N.C. And we couldn't get there. In any case this was my mother Aunt and my mother died many yrs ago . But one memory I have of her is that my mother loved her very much This was her mother sister. She was a strong woman just like my mother and grandmother They had good genes
Looking forward to the time when the dead will be Resurrected again on a paradise earth how do I know this cause the bible tells me so .2tim 3:16 all scripturex r inspired by God. love u family And hope to get upstate to see u all soon

“ To my grandmother, my big momma

As your oldest grandson I was with you until it was time for you to go home. We had our moment of which I will never speak out loud because they were from my heart to yours, and yours to mine. You reminded me to be strong and I told you I got it from here. You smiled and gave me a wink, and then told me to go wash my hands because i didn't do it when I came in your room. (Always gotta get that last comment in.)

Words can never express the feeling I will always have for my big momma. As you always said "I'm partial to my boys" because there were so many girls in the family. I was the oldest grandson out of 3 and you made sure the girls didn't bother me just because they were older. Always my protector.

Until I see you again, grandma I love you
