“ I just discovered that my dear friend Joan died last year. We lived in Philmont when we were all kids. What fun we had! Joan was always inventing some new adventure. We moved to Fl. But I re-discovered her a few years ago so we had a chance to catch up. So glad I did. My sympathies to family and friends. Lorie (Speedy) Gangloff Rutledge

“ I was very lucky to have my Mom for 62 years. She taught me many of the lessons I am here to learn. Through the years I grew to appreciate those lessons, no matter how hard they were. When I became a mother myself my appreciation for the many sacrifices she made for her children, without complaint, both humbled and awed me. Just 12 days before she departed we watched Yankee Doodle Dandy together; it was one of her favorite movies. In previous years I would watch with her or try to sit through it by myself and could never understand why she loved it. This time, though, watching it with her was bittersweet and I totally understood its appeal. The innocence and simplicity of the era was something Mom longed for. The world back then was so different than the chaotic and often troubled one we know today. So Mom, I hope you are at peace but also invigorated with a new life that allows you to recreate all the good things you ever cherished here. And I will close by saying my sisters thank you, my brother thanks you, and I thank you for being our dear Mom.

“ Joan was a classmate of my mother's. I remember with gratitude the kindness and generosity she would always show me when I visited Philmont to spend time with my grandmother, Lucie Monaghan. She never failed to make me welcome whenever I came by to see her children, who were my friends. I recall those times very happily.

My love and condolences to Tony, Kathy, Sandy and Jean.

“ Joan or 'Aunt Joni' as she was know to myself and my siblings, was not only godmother to my sister but a member of my family. My mother Margarete (margo) and Joan were life long friends. Our families shared many memories together. Too many to post. We grew up as neighbors and family together. She will always be in my heart. My Love to all my 'cousins' and their families. I know in my heart that she is now with family that has gone before her, as well as with my parents. Love you 'Aunt Joni'
