“ Dear Joe and the whole Gambino Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember your Mom (and Dad) as being so nice. When we lived above Don's, we'd walk to St. Mary's School together and play on Warren St. Great memories. Your Mom will always be by your side. With love and prayers, Fran Meltz

I have known you and dad for 30 years. You were like my parents and I love you both SO much and miss you terribly. You two were always kind, sweet, and caring to Angela and I. The day I met Johnny was one of the best days of my life and of course having our daughter Angela "OUR ANGEL". It still does not seem real that you are in heaven. Knowing that you and dad are reunited makes us feel at peace. We are all grateful that you are no longer suffering anymore. We love you so much always and forever... Until we all meet again RIP!
