

Larry C. Olshan

October 20, 1946 - May 27, 2024

Mr. Larry Carl Olshan, known affectionately as "Mr. Rubber," passed away on May 27, 2024, at the age of 77 in Hudson, NY. He was born in Flushing, NY. Larry was a high-energy, generous, hardworking, and caring individual. In his career, Larry owned and operated National Tire in Niantic, with additional stores in Waterford and on the Sub base in Groton. He started his journey as a manager for Firestone in Queens, NY, eventually purchasing the Texico station in Niantic on Flanders Rd in 1975. Known for his fast and friendly service, Larry brought the original NY-style tire dealership to New London County, providing customers with a wide selection of tires and a memorable experience.

Outside of work, Larry had a passion for Morgan horses and owned a farm with 12 acres and 13 stalls. He was actively involved in showing horses and even served as the president of the New England Morgan Horse Association. In his final days, his cat Daisy Mae brought him comfort and strength. Larry is survived by his best friend and fiancée, Leah Burch of Philmont, who was the love of his life. His oldest son Justin Olshan, his wife Jami, and grandson Quinten. He is also survived by his youngest son Chad, granddaughter Kayla, and grandson Zack. He was preceded in death by his parents, Harry Olshan and Beatrice Olshan.

Services were on Friday, June 7, 2024 in Niantic, CT.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Humane Society and St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Larry's memory
