

Lee Z. Evans

May 11, 1963 - January 16, 2023

Lee Evans 59 of Claverack born May 11, 1963, ended his life on Monday, January 16, 2023 after battling depression, anxiety, and alcoholism. He was predeceased by his mother, Lucy Swope Yarian, and left behind his father, Frank Evans, step-father, Stan Yarian, three brothers, Tom Swope, Andrew Evans, and Jeremy Evans, and nieces, and nephews. Lee was a talented man, having earned a degree in Electrical Engineering from Worcester Polytechnic Institute and showed extraordinary skills in large and small carpentry projects. Lee was endlessly curious and inventive and will be missed. There will be a natural burial on Thursday afternoon on January 19, 2023 in the Town of Rhinebeck Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

ME

“ Lee was my neighbor, in Worcester MA, and later my friend. I am deeply sorry to read of his passing. My sincere condolences to his family. Lee, I will miss your deep warm voice and hope you are at peace.

Marilyn Eismeier - February 01, 2023 at 02:20 PM

SJ

Lee - we love you guy! Fishing at night for hornpout and grilling them up out on our deck. Good times we will never forget. We miss you!

Shawn & Jenn - December 31, 2024 at 07:33 PM