“ Liam was a very dear friend to me we went winter camping this year we hiked a lot I promised lands State Park we went to Rockland lakes during the winter we walked we talked she was a very very dear friend of mine it's sad that it's private viewing but I have many pictures of her and I'm very very glad that I met her I am blessed that I had her friendship I have very very much a lot of memories of Leanne and I'm so so broken-hearted to see and to hear what has happened to a woman that was such a great friend and that was loved by so many I know that she struggled in so many ways but in a lot of ways she had so much to offer I spoke to her the Wednesday before that happened she told me everything was fine she was going to Albany and she would call me that night she said I love you and I'll talk to you soon and thank you for seeing such a good friend and helping me get to where I need to be I feel especially bad for her dog clover because clover was such a part of her rebuild of strength I'm very sad again to hear and see what has happened to a dear friend of mine and I can only pray that she rests in peace Leanne you'll be Love forever by me sincerely Edmond Yerry
