“Madalyn was a dear friend, wise, witty, beautiful, kindhearted, brave, independent, a dedicated volunteer, a wonderful and generous woman with an open-hearted approach to the world around her.

Tall and lovely, she had her signature look of classic flattering tops with perfectly coordinating scarves, hand-crafted earrings, and her modest smile.

Madalyn will be greatly missed by friends and family that loved her, and many others in the community that knew her through a variety of local connections and charities.

She had great compassion for all creatures in the animal kingdom. Especially her beloved senior-rescue felines that she cared for over the years.

Madalyn believed in living simply, caring for the planet, acknowledging the beauty that there is in each day, and reaching out to help those in need.

She has left a legacy of love in action.
