“ As the youngest of the brothers and sisters, I consider myself to be very fortunate and blessed to be part of such a great family. My brother and sisters are genuine honest caring people. My sister Margaret was always a classy lady and was a role model for all. She will be missed by all who knew her but memories will keep her with us every day. We love you. Rest In Peace and enjoy your reunion with all our deceased family members.

“ My sister Peg was a wonderful woman who made me realize that family love means so much more than just actions or words. She was the oldest of the Antonelli children and was a matriarch to us all. Peg, you will live on in our memories and will always be in my prayers. Your little sister, Denise
