“ My Cousin Mary , as well as being a loving wife and mother, was an accomplished cook and baker. We would travel from Waterbury, Conn to Hudson every holiday large and small to celebrate and would invariably wind up at 229 Warren St. We would swim in the pool with my cousins Phil, Fran, Michael, Anthony and Joseph while my Cousin Mary would heap the table with her eggplant , her famous mac n cheese, fried chicken ( a rarity in an Italian family, ) oh, and her desserts!! She was the driver behind all our family feasts.. And because of her, all in our family have special memories that we talk about frequently and that we can pull out and lose ourselves in no matter how apart we are in distance. My cousin will live on in the telling of those stories and so she will never be gone from us.

“ *Uncle Tiny Phil and Fran
I will miss Aunt Mary so much. I will always remember her good cooking at the chatham fair and everything she did for me. I will always remember the time when she taught bible school Tuesday afternoons and the candy she used to give us. She always gave me more so I could give it to Michele. We will all have great memories that will get us through this difficult time. Donna.*
