“ I shared many loving and happy years with Mary. She was a strong lady with high standards and a kind, loving, and giving heart. She was a wonderful partner and wife to my Father. He was the happiest in his life while he was married to Mary for almost twenty years. I will forever miss my dear Mary...our many wonderful vacations together, my weekend visits, all the fun restaurants we ate at together, masses we attended yearly in memory of my Father at St. Mary's, boat trips on the Hudson River, and just being together sharing a cup of coffee. I always left my times spent with Mary feeling much better about myself..she did that for me....she gave me her love and support. Mary will forever be in my heart and thoughts. ...her presence in my life will never fade.
