“Mary was always good to me growing up. She called me her "little sister" and took me everywhere. I remember riding in her red Pontiac convertible; overnights in the tiny little camper, dancing the polka, going to her wedding when I was around eleven; babysitting for her children. We drifted apart years later after I got married, moved away, and we lost contact. I have very fond memories of her and her family. Sad to learn of her passing and never having the chance to tell her she was an important part of my life. Condolences to her children and grandchildren.

“Mary was the consummate hostess. Here parties and dinners were always filled with tons of delicious food and the feeling that everyone in the room was family. Memories of Christmas dinner are vivid with 20 people at the table every year! You will be missed, Mary!”
