“ Mauricio worked for me dozens of times in the past few years at my office and home. In all of that time he always came through for me. He was very resourceful and dedicated to the job at hand. He always acted with integrity and honor. I was so impressed one day when work was needed on the roof. I was sure he would send one of his sons up the ladder but when I came around there he was up on the ladder with Rodrigo below supporting the ladder. He had great courage and great love for his family. He was a gem of a man.
