

Megan Kimberly Carr-Wilks

February 19, 1962 - September 19, 2017

Retired New York Police Detective Megan Kimberly Carr-Wilks died peacefully in her sleep in St. Peter's Hospital on September 19, 2017, in Albany, NY at the age of 55.

Megan is survived by her husband, Femord Wilks of Hudson; her son Dorian Carr and his wife Opal Carr, and a son Derrace Carr, all of Hudson. Also, her brothers David Carr Sr., of Roselle N.J., Christian Carr, of Philmont, N.Y., and sister, Autuam Pia Carr of Hudson, N.Y. And eight grandchildren; Samiya Carr, Megan Carr, Dorian Jr., Jahyirah Carr, Derrace Carr, Pia Carr, Nazir Carr, and Zacharius Carr, all of Hudson.

She was preceded in death by her mother Martha Lynn Carr, a brother Dwaine Carr and brother Drake "Tory" Carr.

Megan was born in New York City on February 19, 1962, and was the eldest daughter of Martha Lynn Carr of Hudson. She graduated from Evander Childs High School in Bronx, N.Y. and was a graduate of John Jay CUNY in Manhattan and the New York City Police Academy. After college, she worked briefly in the Manhattan District Attorney's office before being accepted into the academy. Upon graduation, she was assigned to the 60th Precinct in Coney Island where she worked as a youth officer and later was promoted to detective with the Special Victims Unit. She worked for the NYPD for more than 20 years before retiring in 2010. She moved to Hudson in 2011 and was employed as a Resource Officer for the Hudson City School District. During her tenure on the NYPD, Megan was an emergency First Responder during the Sept. 11th terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center. She spent many, hours at the site and in 2012 was diagnosed with cancer brought on by prolonged exposure to the contaminated air. She struggled valiantly against the disease before succumbing last Tuesday.

Megan was one of the most loquacious, naturally funny, giving, loving and strongest women you ever met. From her independent, assertive attitude, loudness, love of travel and the finer things in life, right down to her unmistakable Bronx accent, she was a 100 percent quintessential New Yorker. She lived her life on her own terms and fought her illness with courage, determination and a sense of dignity, that was an inspiration to all. Megan loved life and was loved dearly by her family and all those who came to know her. She was a hero, and she will be greatly missed.

Funeral services for Megan will be Friday, September 29th at the Sacco, McDonald, Valenti Funeral Home 700 Town Hall Drive Hudson, NY 12534. Calling Hours will be from 11 am-2pm and funeral services will begin at 2 pm at the funeral home with Rev. Adolphus C. Lacey officiating and with the assistance of the NYPD Ceremonial Unit and Honor Guard. Family and friends will gather at the funeral home beginning at 10:45 am. “ *Megan was always the life of the party! She allowed me to be myself and not be the shy person I use to be when I first met her in my middle school years. It was worth getting in trouble to be around her:0) She will be missed dearly! My deepest sympathy to her family. God Bless,

There are so many memories! When I came to the States Megan was a little girl . She was a skinny girl with a wonderful smile. I saw her grow up, turn into a beautiful young lady, and am grateful to have had a place in her life! Sleep in peace! Luv you, Corah

We use to serve the special needs children at Nelly Blye and Coney Island for years. She was a pleasure to work with because of her compassion for the children and people. She will be deeply missed. I thank God for allowing us to share the same space and time. RIP and rise in Glory Megan.
