“ Michael, I miss you more than words can ever say, the tears are endless, I enjoyed every single moment and time when I visited with you. You are and were like a brother to me. I know I'll see you someday up in heaven, we had many good and fun times together, telling jokes, laughing, and all the pizza parties, always know that you were a great friend sent to me from God, I'm truly thankful

I am so deeply sorry for the great loss everyone is feeling. Mike was like one of my kids. Hung around my step son Eddie and was so much a part of us. Mike even can't to visit us in S. Glens Falls before going out to Arizona. He will be so missed by every single individual he met. He was the most gentle soul. R.I.P Mike. Love you buddy!

“ I knew Michael from the toy community. He seemed to be in every site and auction I was in. Many times I saw him buy items for people who couldn't afford them or kept losing them because of the lag . He was always thinking of others. I also got a chance to enjoy his humour and tell it like it is philosophy . We had some good talks about politics and shared some funny pictures. He always made me smile and I called him “a good egg”. He once told me I brightened up some of his worst days with my energy, but the truth was he brightened up mine by his kindness. I will miss him a lot and remember him always. My heart and deepest sympathies go out to his mom, his relatives and his close friends.

“ I met Micheal at the shriners burns institue in Boston in 1992. He had a 17 hour major surgery and I had a 7 hour not as major surgery. But we became friends pretty quick and for the q7 days I was there we were together everyday. His mom was very nice to me while there as well. My dad was there the first few days but I was on my own for 13 of the 17 which I spent most of the time with Micheal. We lost touch after a few years. A few years back I searched him on fb and reached out. He did remember me and we had quite a few conversations and messages ever since. He will be missed and my aympathies go out to his family!
