“ Today, I stand with a heart full of sorrow and gratitude as I honor the life of someone who meant so much to me, my dear friend. Bryan, there are no words that can fully capture who you were or what you meant to those lucky enough to know you. You weren't just a friend, you were family. You had a spirit that was larger than life, kind, fearless, funny, and endlessly loyal. You showed up, not just when it was convenient, but when it mattered most. You were the friend I turned to for advise when life got heavy. You listened, but never judged. We shared the kind of friendship that doesn't come around often, the kind that lasts through years. Thank you, Bryan. Thank you for every moment, every advise, every lesson. Thank you for being you. You may be gone from this world, but you'll always be right here, in my heart.

Rest easy, my friend, my brother. You are deeply missed and forever loved.

O'Neil is my uncle; he played a big part in my life growing up and in my adulthood. Growing up without a father in my life, my uncle played a big part in being a male figure I could always count on. He's a king in my book and I will surely miss him forever. I love you, uncle.
