“ Dear Michael, I am saddened to learn of your mother's passing. She was a very unique person and mother. I remember how kind she always was and the special way she made positive things happen. It was my pleasure to have known her.

You won't remember me, but I got to know your Mom when I taught in Claverack and you were a special student of mine.

God bless you all,

“ To Paula's Family,

I had the up most pleasure getting to know Paula through the Afterschool program. Her love for the children was so kind and the all the children loved her so much. The kids re-named her as Ms. C. Paula is an angel now with real wings.....

My heart goes out to all of you for your loss.

*Yours,
