

Philip A. Shallo

April 2, 1930 - November 30, 2022

Philip Anthony Shallo, 92, of Hudson, New York, passed away on November 30, 2022. Philip was born on April 2nd, 1930 to Mary and Dominic in Hudson, New York. After graduating from Hudson High School, he went on to serve in the Navy in 1947. After his time serving in the Navy, he was hired to work with IBM, where he would stay throughout his career. He met and fell in love with Helen Malonis and they wed on April 24, 1955, going on to have 67 wonderful eventful years which included their 3 children. He was known by everyone to be a strong, caring man who loved his family fiercely and in turn was loved even more. All his life he had a love of cars and driving. After retiring in 1990, Philip spent his leisure time traveling around the United States with his wife, being a wonderful grandfather to his five grandchildren and occasionally trying his luck at one of the local casinos. In recent years he was able to meet and enjoy his two great grandchildren, Reagan and Jackson.

Philip was predeceased by his parents Mary and Dominick, as well as his siblings Angelo, Lawrence (Piney), Paul, Felix, and Caroline.

In addition to his wife Helen, he is survived by his brother Dominick, daughters: Diane, Laurie, and Maryann, grandchildren: Kerri, Sierra, Michael, Collin and Jenna, as well as great-grandchildren: Jackson and Reagan.
