“ When we were just starting out farming, Bob took a chance in letting my business partners and I lease, then buy, the farm property left to him by his best friend Andrew. I will never forget Bob's fairness and generosity in handling his friend's farm, and so appreciated his support for us. I really enjoyed when Bob stopped by to check in and share stories from Andrew's life and the way things used to be. Everything he said and did - like lending us a mower, being patient with us in completing the farm purchase -- all showed that it was second nature to Bob to share what he had, without greed. It really left an impression on me and hope Bob knows we will keep paying that generosity forward. All my best to Dotty, Trevor, and the rest of Bob's family.

“ I met Bob a few months ago...was my co workers dad...I brought up some Brooklyn bread and Danish and the smile on his face was priceless! I spent some time with him in the house with his loving wife and son. We had a beautiful lunch that was prepared and I said my goodbyes! Not before I seen the pics of all the fish and melts. What a great man....I will miss him surly. We now have a Representative in Heaven....talk to him always!
