“ Rosie was our neighbor for many years in Copake Falls, along with her cousin Fred. She was unfailingly warm, generous and genuinely interested in our family. We talked regularly across the fence, in our homes and, from time to time at the Taconic Inn and other local restaurants or community events. All three of us had missed Rosie's presence next door since she moved, but my wife did visit her several times at Pine Haven so we kept in touch. Our hearts go out to Brian and the rest of the family and hope they find some solace knowing that many others will remember her fondly.

“ Rosalie was a warm, caring, generous neighbor and friend. She always invited us in to sit and chat -- provided treats to our son Soren. She took beautiful care of her flowers and Fred. She often talked lovingly of her children and grandchildren. We are so sorry for this huge loss to her family. We are holding her family in our hearts in this difficult time but are also confident that her spirit is around all of you.
