The love of my life. Thank you Rose for raising such a wonderful caring loving man. Although he can't speak or move, he hears. He is the best thing that ever happened to me. I've often heard you can tell how a man will treat a woman by the way he treats his mom. Joe loved his mom dearly and treated her with gentle kindness. We spent a lot of great memories with both Rose and Joe. Please keep Joe in your prayers.

“ Aunt Rose!!! So sorry to hear of her passing. She was a sister and a dear friend to my dad. He loved her dearly My mother also considered her a friend, and that's saying some. Until I saw the attached pictures, I did not know that my father was best man at her wedding, and that in itself is a meaningful indicator of his love for her, because if you knew my dad, he was not a suit-wearing kind of guy. The last time I saw Aunt Rose was at my wedding in 1968, and allowing that much time to pass without contact was my loss. From time to time while visiting Hudson, my mother, until she died, would inform me on family details, and of course, accounts of Rose were part of the update. Let's face it; a good woman has left us. Rest in peace, Aunt Rose.

My son Joseph Klima, also of Michigan, were united in marriage on Saturday, November 23, at Christ - Episcopal church; the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Alan Brown, rector. The bride was attended by Miss Myrtle Klima, sister of the groom and the best man was William Sticker, brother of the bride.

The bride was attractive in a gray wool dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses while the maid of honor wore a dress of fuchsia wool with black accessories and a corsage.

Aunt Rose was totally a dedicated mother, giving so much love to her son Joseph whom she adored. I remember her as a great mom to 'Joey', and in turn was an inspiration to him. Family values were important. She was so happy when her son Joey found his 'Angel' Beverly. Her son Joey was everything to her, and I wish to thank Beverly for taking care of his family with such loving care. Aunt Rose will now be able to join her beloved husband Joe, her sisters and brothers in God's Kingdom.

*Blessings,
