

Shirley Ann Dunn

March 11, 1958 - July 19, 2019

Shirley Ann Dunn, daughter of Mary F. McKinnon and the late Alex McKinnon, was born on March 11, 1958 in Bennettsville, South Carolina. On Friday, July 19, 2019, she was called home to glory.

Shirley was a devoted daughter, wife and mother. Shirley was never the type of lady to hold her tongue and not state what was on her mind. Her loving heart was demonstrated in her nursing career for over 20 years. The love of her children was insurmountable. Her soul-mate of 24 plus years was also a focal point of her life. Shirley's addicting personality and heart was pleasure. She enjoyed interacting and assisting those around her. She was vibrant and energetic. Shirley's favorite hobbies were taking long drives and thrift shopping. Dining out with her daughter Latisha was frequent pleasure. Shirley will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Shirley was preceded in death by her father, Alex McKinnon. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Accent Dunn; mother, Mary F. McKinnon; her children, Tarshina Tolson (Eric Tolson), Latisha Diaz, Rafael Diaz, Joseph Diaz (Inita Griffin), Juanita Diaz, Carrol Dunn, Gary Dunn, Benji Dunn, Sharmine Dunn, and Lisa Dunn; brother, Gerry A. McKinnon; sister, Michelle McKinnon; sister & brother in-laws, Carol Dunn, Clifton Dunn, Rodman Dunn, Kenton Dunn, and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and a host of family and friends.

Funeral services will be Sunday July 28, 2019 beginning at 3pm at the Sacco-McDonald-Valenti funeral home.

“ The voice of a mother that I have met over the phone, and a step mother I would of have made my own, a mother I would have loved just as I love the child she born, a mother that was known to be lovely, gentle, kind, and adorn, a mother that you only get one, and a mother all full of fun, a mother whom I would meet when God calls me home, but now it's time to rejoice because mother you are going home... 😞
