“ When my family and I moved from Florida to New York, Teresa Nero was a true friend. She treated me no different, she did not look down on me because of my color or where I came from. I spent the night at here house in the 1970, and her family treated me with nothing but respect. And in school when my mom could not afford to give extra money for snacks, she gave it to me. I loved her as a sister. From that day to this that let me know we are all the same. Humans!! You will never forget kindness, even after 40 years later she was still in heart. That's how far kindness will take you. Thanks, for face book,after 40 years I found my friend. Marilyn Preston! love u

“ *Although Teresa was a cousin I really only remember meeting her once at a family reunion when we were both very young. I do remember having fun with her that day. We're so very sorry your loss; our hearts go out to the whole family. You can take comfort in knowing that she's with God now and in a much better place.

Dear Teresa, you promised to watch over us, and I know in my heart you will. I pray that your Dad was there to greet you and that you will finally be pain-free and have found peace. God blessed you with a sense of humor and the ability to make others laugh even when you faced your biggest challenge of all. Please know that we miss you now, but we will see you again. Love, Nancy xo

RIP now my friend. You showed the strength of a lioness until the very end. i know it will be a very short rest and a new journey will begin, I know you passed God's test and You fulfilled your purpose on this earth. You have touched so many hearts. You have inspired, comforted, befriended, you always kept your faith and you always had a positive attitude. There was always an abundance of laughter with you around. . You were very free to give your opinion. You my friend will never be forgotten and will leave many memories behind. I am sure for those that will need you, you will not be very far. I feel i am a better person to have known you and an even better person to have had the priviledge of you considering me a friend. RIP now my friend.

“Teresa was a wonderful human being. She was warm and friendly, funny, easy to be with and a caring good-hearted person. I am very sorry for her loss because the world will not be the same without her. I hope she is in everlasting peace and surrounded by all her loved ones who passed before she did. She deserves the comfort of the love of god and all the angels in heaven. I love you, Teresa!
