“ So many memories from just a few months old borrowing you for a couple days to hang out with me at uncke Dons to endless fun threw the years watching you and your brother and sisters grow up . You were one of my own , I will miss you forever Thomas .I will miss your late night visits and your big bear hugs and you telling me about how tough your daughter is and how much trouble she was gonna give you growing up,it old yiu that was just payback and yiu laughed and said now I know how my ma feels . I hope you know how they all feel know, wish you weren't so damn hard headed wish you were hear .please watch over them they are broken and hurt and angry .Nothing can fix it because your not coming home I pray your at peace and and resting easy Auntie and Dennis we love you forever 💔💔💔💔
