Warren J Dierkes, 76, beloved husband of Grayce Paul-Dierkes for over 53 years, and father of Avery W Dierkes of Livingston, NY, grandfather of Shianne Dierkes Ogden (husband Augustus Ogden), passed away peacefully in his Livingston home on February 20, 2026 after his battle with several strokes. Warren is also survived by his brother Ronald Dierkes (wife Kathy) niece Katie Burch (husband Jesse), nephew Brian Dierkes (wife Pam), sister-in-law Melanie Collins, and niece Brittany Collins.

Warren is predeceased by parents Hugo and Catherine Dierkes, an infant sister Alice, brother John Collins, and stepmother Martha Scott Dierkes.

Joining us in grief are many family and friends who were all a big part of his life especially many nieces and nephews, in-laws and more who were all greatly loved and appreciated.

IN LIFE Warren was a lifetime farmer, rancher, medical transportation owner/operator, accomplished horseman, who loved his dogs and cats immensely. Warren was a dedicated volunteer for many years at Livingston Pumper No. One Fire Department, as well as a Fire Commissioner.

A kind soul, on any given spring day you could see Warren and a trail of his cats following around on his chores. He was an enigma, and will be greatly missed. RIDE ON , Warren. Ride on.

“ Remember Warren from horseback riding at Hugo's Saddle Ranch when we were kids. And he was our egg delivery guy. He would knock on our door in Claverack and deliver eggs and always chat with my parents. Years later ran into Warren and reminisced and he remembered. Sorry to hear he passed. Was a good guy.
