“ Chancy,
Bill and I worked for many years together at Gifford-Wood and McGuire, during that time we became the best of friends not only at the workplace but the times we shared bowling and most of all my "golf partner". He truly loved the game and I got him started working on golf club repair which he mastered. He was the kindest and gentlest man I have ever known. We got to see Bill in the hospital and before he passed, we spoke and shared our stories of our good times and expressed our love for one another. He will always have a place in my heart, I cared for him deeply.

With are deepest sympathy to you and family.

“ I worked with Bill when he was the shipping and receiving manager at McGuire. I remember well that ready smile, the kind words and the gently teasing manner. All of us at McGuire liked working with this man as he was not only very good at his job but also seemed to never get ruffled and always had an optimistic and gentle view of the universe. I have not seen Bill in a long time but I have never forgotten this man. I had no idea he was related to Todd Traver, who was on my Little League team the Red Sox in Chatham. My Condolences to his family as he was truly, in the best sense of the phrase, one of a kind and irreplaceable.

I have many memories of "Uncle Bill" as I knew him growing up on Oakwood Blvd. I am sorry I was unable to attend the services, but please know that you are all in my thoughts.
