

William "Dan" McNeill

August 2, 1947 - March 16, 2014

William "Dan" McNeill 66, of Harlemville, died Sunday March 16, 2014 at St. Peters Hospice in Albany after a long courageous battle with cancer. Born August 2, 1947 in Hudson, he was the son of the late William E. and Nellie (Shufelt) McNeill. He was a 1965 graduate of Ockawamick High School, and graduated from Hudson Valley Community Collage. Dan served 8 years with the New York Army National Guard. He was a Supervisor for Taconic DDSO in Wassaic and was a life member of the National Rifle Association, North American Hunt Club, West Copake Reformed Church and member of the church choir and he enjoyed the Monday night Men Underconstruction there. He was a beloved husband and avid sportsman who enjoyed a compassion for stock car racing, hunting, fishing, camping and had a genuine love of nature.

Dan is survived by his loving wife Linda (Harder) McNeill, brother Paul and (Diane) McNeill nephew Joshua McNeill and several cousins.
