“ I meet Bill in church, and when I seen him in the store I would stop and talk,these last few weeks of his life I got to know Bill, very giving and very thoughtfully person I was talking to him about my breaks on my car and he said it might be this he laid there and thought of me in a hospital bed and called his sister and said you know it my be this what was wrong with my car . Here was a man so sick and in the hospital and could think of me and my car is a very special person I will hold that in my heart until we meet again. Thank You Bill for your friendship I will hold you in my heart until we meet again in Jesus home
