“ I'm sorry for the loss you're Family is now facing. It seems at times like this words simply can't express sympathy. Nor do they offer solace in consideration of the passing of someone so loved. I'm truly sorry for your loss I know you will find strength and comfort in Family. Honestly the truest reflection of a man remains mirrored in the hearts of his children and loved ones.

“ I'm so sorry for your lost, Willy will forever be in my heart along with the whole Preusser Family. I thank God as a kid being around Willy and you and the others in your family. He was a very big influence in my young life. Many years have gone by where I haven't been around, but many years I have carried around the memories of Willy and his family. Thank you and Willy for that time in my life. Bill Miller
