“ I just want to share my condolences in my heartfelt sadness for Bill Junior's family. I have known Bill Sr., Amy and Carol for many many years now. And they are not just good friends but they are like family to me as well and always will be. And I know their pain is a great one. But be assured that you have many loving friends and family to help you through this and support you in this hard time. Our love and prayers are with you all. Love and hugs go out to the extended family as well for who we have not had the pleasure of knowing but you are all in our prayers as well . Be comforted by the fact he has found peace. His memory will always live on in your heart and memories. You are not alone in this sad time. So please know you have support. Your friends always in love and light. Sandy Quirino and Danny Jennings.
If you need anything at all you have my number. I wish I could be with you all Sunday. But please know I am there in spirit. Hugs to family and friends. Sending peace and love.
